

Announcement of new KAP MD

Yohei Fukuda Appointed as Managing Director of KYOCERA Asia Pacific Group 27 March 2026 | Corporate

Kyoto/Singapore – Effective 1 April 2026, Mr. Yohei Fukuda has been appointed as the new Managing Director (MD) of KYOCERA Asia Pacific Group (KAP-G). In his new role, Mr. Fukuda will be responsible for overseeing the Group’s overall operations and further strengthening its growth and strategic development across the Asia Pacific region.

KAP-G operates 19 locations—including sales offices, factories, and technical centers—across the Asia-Pacific region. The Group employs nearly 700 people and comprises 11 business divisions and 6 indirect divisions, supporting a wide range of industries and customers throughout Asia Pacific.

Mr. Fukuda currently serves as Deputy General Manager of the Industrial Tool Division at the KYOCERA Asia Pacific Thailand office. Throughout his career with the KYOCERA Group, he has gained extensive experience in business management, operations, and strategic planning. With his new appointment, Mr. Fukuda will relocate from Thailand to Singapore to assume his responsibilities as Managing Director of KAP-G.

With his strong leadership capabilities and deep industry knowledge, Mr. Fukuda is well positioned to guide the Group toward continued success and sustainable growth in the region.

As part of the management transition, Mr. Hideo Yoshida will assume the role of Deputy Managing Director from the next fiscal year. He will support Mr. Fukuda during the transition period and contribute to the smooth establishment of the new management structure.

KAP-G looks forward to welcoming Mr. Fukuda to his new role and is confident that under his leadership, the Group will continue to prosper, expand its regional presence, and deliver enhanced value to its customers and partners.
